HOME-BASED BUSINESS LICENSING PROCESS*

1. Fill out the business license application in its entirety. Attach any applicable supporting documentation.
2. Submit your application to Lori Parks at the Liberty Consolidated Planning Commission ("LCPC"). Ms. Parks will create a presentation for the City Council at the next regular Council meeting for your business license. There is no charge to you for this service. Her contact information is below.
3. When the Council approves your business license, you can come by City Hall the next morning to remit payment and receive your business license.

This process has several additional steps which are required by law for home-based daycares.*
